

Congressman John Barrow (GA-12) will host a lunch meeting on Wednesday, June 23, 2010, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the Lucy Craft Laney Museum of Black History, located at 1116 Phillips Street in Augusta.

This meeting is part of Congressman Barrow’s Quarterly “Lunch and Learn Series.” The Lunch and Learn Series is an opportunity for constituents to come together and discuss relevant, timely topics with local experts while enjoying a free lunch. The meetings will be held every few months. This month’s topic is “Keeping the CSRA Safe,” and the featured speaker will be Captain Scott Peebles, Augusta-Richmond County Sheriff’s Department

Future meetings will include:

October 20, 2010

Healthcare: Caring for the Uninsured

Featuring speakers from Belle Terrace Health and Wellness Center and Christ Community Health Center

December 15, 2010

Economic Development: What’s in Store for the CSRA?

Featuring speakers from CSRA Regional Development Commission

Folks from the 12th District of Georgia who would like to attend should call 706-722-4494 by Friday, June 18, 2010 to RSVP.

WHAT:

Congressman Barrow's Lunch and Learn Series Meeting "Keeping the CSRA Safe" featuring Ca

WHEN:

Wednesday, June 23, 2010

11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

WHERE:

Lucy Craft Laney Museum of Black History

1116 Phillips Street, Augusta

RSVP:

By Friday, June 18, 2010, Congressman Barrow's Office, 706-722-4494

###

Contact: Jane Brodsky, (202) 225-2823

click here for a .pdf copy of this advisory