

Congressman John Barrow (GA-12) has been all over the 12th District, and one thing everybody's worried about is health care. He's working hard in Washington to fix health care, but he also wants to do something here at home to help.

On Wednesday, March 14, 2012, Congressman Barrow, along with the East Georgia Health Cooperative, will be hosting a Health Fair for folks in the Swainsboro area from 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Vарner 4H Center at 220 South Circle Drive

in Swainsboro.

He'll be bringing local health care organizations together in one place, so folks can come and get some of their health care questions answered, get good advice, and learn how to save money on health care.

Health care professionals will be on hand to administer completely free screenings for high blood pressure, diabetes, and cholesterol, give advice on how to save money on prescription drugs, and talk to folks about nutrition and fitness.

"Times are tough right now," said Barrow, "but I hope folks will stop by and take advantage of these services, get some information about keeping their family healthy, and hopefully get some peace of mind."
