WASHINGTON – On Saturday, February 16, 2013, U.S. Congressman John Barrow (GA-12) will host "Congress on the Corner" in Waynesboro, Swainsboro, Metter, and Vidalia. Congressman Barrow regularly holds these meetings to talk one-on-one with constituents and give them updates on the work he's doing on their behalf. Members of Congressman Barrow's staff will also be available to help anyone with problems they may be having with a government agency, such as the Social Security Administration, Medicare, or the Veterans Administration.

"Folks should never have to travel far to meet with their Congressman, so we make it a habit of getting out in the community to talk with folks," said Congressman Barrow. "I'm looking forward to visiting with 12th District residents, and encourage folks to join us at one of our stops this weekend."
